

Terms and Conditions and Agreement

E-Course Policy

To access the online e-courses, you must attest that you have read and agree to the terms and conditions contained in this E-Course Terms and Conditions Agreement. The term “course” includes the e-course, Google drive, Google classroom, Google Meet, and all associated materials. Read this E-Course Terms and Conditions Agreement carefully.

Use of E-Course Materials

All e-courses and materials, along with references used in or related to the e-courses, are the property of the PGIS or of third parties and used under permission granted to the PGIS and may only be used in the manner detailed in this E-Course Terms and Conditions Agreement. Permission to use the material in any other way must be obtained in writing from the PGIS and/or the publisher or author of the material. These materials are for the sole use of individuals registered for the e-course or others as approved by the PGIS.

As an e-course registrant, you may view and read all materials that are part of the e-course facility. You may also print any or all screen and pdf file pages for your personal use in taking the e-course, but you may not share, communicate, publish or in any manner distribute to other parties the e-course, login and password, readings, references, links or any other materials. The terms and conditions regarding use of materials apply upon registration for the course, while you are taking the e-course, and upon and after completing, withdrawing from, or terminating the e-course.

Expectations

1. We expect full attendance in the class and commitment to learn Assamese language is expected of all students. Please notify us via email or text, 3 days in advance if you are unable to attend any class.
2. Everyone needs to complete and submit his or her homework on time that is before the next class or a week from the date it is assigned. There should not be any backlog of homework. Parents can find their child’s work and see their progress by logging into Google classroom and in their Google Drives.

Homework Submission

1. All students should have their own e-mail address to enter the classroom. All students create a Google drive folder in her/his first name to keep their homework. If you do not know how to create a Google Drive folder, please go to <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P7555XlfHgs> .
2. To keep homework in Google drive students, need to take an image of the completed worksheet keeping on a flat area where can focus well and upload the picture only in the student’s drive
